If the wanton waste of timber hereabouts continues it will not be a great many years until firewood becomes a scarce article.
An attempt is going to be made to send the west timber thieves to the penitentiary. 'Twould be a most wholesome lesson.
Next week we begin the publication of most interesting serial story, "The Lone Wolf." Do not miss the opening chapters.
Rev. H. C. Harting, of Flat River, pastor of the Lutheran church at Pilot Knob, was a caller Monday morning. A very pleasant and affable gentleman he is.
Mrs. Johanna Symonds, sister of Judge Carty, last week purchased from Henry Arnold, of Illinois, what is known as the old A. N. Hunt farm, southwest of Arcadia.
The remains of the late Jas. A. Harris, who died at his home between Ironton and Pilot Knob Wednesday morning of last week, were taken to Annapolis for interment the following day.

It has been a cold week. Thursday night the thermometer went down to 2 degrees below zero—the coldest night of this winter. It has been cold ever since but the promise now is for warmer weather.
Ed Masterson has had considerable trouble trying to maintain the dam by the old ice house on Stout's Creek this winter. No sooner does he get the dam in shape than waves come some high water and washes it away.
A letter from the west end of the county to Ironton coming by way of Silgo, the Frisco railroad and St. Louis, is, some times more than a week on the road. Coming by way of Edgehill it reaches its destination in two days.
Mrs. R. W. Shattuck, mother of E. D. Shattuck, is not improving at all, having been confined to her bed since Christmas at the home of her son, 918 Tremont street. She is eighty-three years of age.—Poplar Bluff Republican.
Although we have had a week of unusually cold weather the ice is not thick enough to justify putting up. On the Emerson pond there is about four and three quarter inches. On the creeks the ice is not more than two inches thick.
Three or more sacks of mail, thrown from the morning south-bound train at the Ironton station the past week, have been broken open and the contents of the sacks rendered worthless. How much longer are our people going to tolerate this abomination?
County Treasurer Jones is paying off all outstanding county warrants. He figures that when all the warrants have been cashed there will be $3,000 left in the treasury to meet this year's expenses. A most satisfactory condition and on which our officials are to be congratulated.
Mr. W. R. Edgar, Sr., who had been staying at home for several days on account of a slight indisposition, suffered a heart attack Tuesday evening and was rather seriously ill for a short time. He passed a very good night, however, and it is reported that he is resting nicely this Wednesday morning and it is hoped he will soon be in his usual health again.

Dr. W. G. Patton of State Hospital No. 4 left Wednesday for Poplar Bluff, Mo., where he had been called as an expert witness in a case coming up for trial there. The doctor is well qualified along the line of passing on the condition of one's mental condition.—Farmington Times.
We hear the names of three of our young school teachers mentioned as probable candidates for the Democratic nomination for County Treasurer this year: Houston McColl, of Bellevue, Arthur Francis, of Edgehill, and Jesse Jackson, of Des Arc. And there may be others.
Consequent on the Democratic prosperity, now in evidence in every nook and corner of our land, there is an unusual scarcity of teams at the hub factory at Redmondville, in the west end of the county. Men, with teams, seeking employment can get a job there that will pay $3.50 to $5 per day.
Mr. E. W. Graves of Des Arc was last week chosen as cashier of the Bank of Poplar Bluff, the oldest and strongest financial institution in that town. We trust his acceptance of the position will not necessitate Mr. Graves' removal from our county. He has long been a big stockholder in the bank.
Mr. Kelton E. White of St. Louis spent Sunday in Ironton. Mr. White, in company with a bunch of bond brokers from St. Louis, Chicago and Boston, spent Saturday in Little Rock and got off train No. 6 here Wednesday morning. Mr. White says that the state-wide prohibition law of Arkansas is by no means rigidly enforced.
The revival meeting continues with increased interest. In spite of the almost constant rain, the big tabernacle was made rapidly. It was built by free labor and the men worked heroically for three days right through the rain. The ladies of the different churches served dinner for the men Tuesday and Wednesday.—Festus News.
The death of Judge Harry R. Holland creates a vacancy in the Iron county court which will be filled by appointment by the Governor. The names of former county judge, W. T. Stevenson, of Des Arc, Add Reese and Squire Kitchell, of Annapolis, T. N. Marr and former Mayor Robert A. Rasche, of Ironton, have been mentioned in connection with the vacancy. The appointment will probably be made this week.
By a deed which was filed in the recorder's office Tuesday, E. L. Cook, Cashier of the Bank of Ironton, became the owner of what is known as the Rudy farm, about a mile west of Ironton. The property is deeded to Mr. Cook by the Graham Farm Company, which acquired the place from Mr. Rudy two or three years since. The consideration named is $15,000. It is one of the most valuable farms hereabouts.
R. C. Vance, of Thomas, Oklahoma, was a caller at this office Tuesday morning. Mr. Vance has been visiting relatives and friends in the lead belt and about Roselle the past week. He went to Marquand Tuesday, where he will spend the remainder of the week and then return to Oklahoma. Mr. Vance has been located out there about eight years. He is in the blacksmithing and machinery business and prospering—pleasing news to his many friends hereabouts.
L. W. Weller and Ed S. Casey of the State Auditor's office completed the work of auditing the books of the Circuit Clerk and Recorder's office for the years 1910 to 1914, inclusive, Tuesday night. They left Wednesday morning for Van Buren, where they will work on the Carter county books. They will make their report to State Auditor Gordon, and his report to the county court of this county is expected in ten days or two weeks.—Greenview Journal.
Sheriff Blue and Deputy George W. Marshall made a trip to the west end of the county the past week returning with the following named prisoners: Tom, Harrison, Lewis and Joe Parks, Bill Fields, Porter Abney, Herbert, Joe and Enoch Barton—all charged with stealing timber. The six first named have felony charges lodged against them, the latter three being charged with misdemeanors. The felony charge is made where the amount involved is more than $50. Fred Chandler, charged with hog stealing, was also brought to town. Sheriff Blue's boarding house is now fairly well filled. The four Parks, Fields and Abner will have a preliminary examination before Squire R. A. Rasche January 29th. The Bartons expect to give bond and stand trial at the next term of circuit court. Chandler will have a preliminary before Squire Rasche January 25th.
Last Sunday neighbor Trauernicht, the elder, attained his sixtieth year. A few of his many friends who had "kept tabs" on his gathering years made it a point to call upon him on that day, with congratulations that he is yet so young a man, and expressing the wish that many happy years may yet be his. A little after the noon hour we all sat down to an elegant repast, to which, so far as my observation went—but I was diligently employed, just then—all did the amplest dole. The good hostess came in for a full share of the good wishes of the assemblage, most of whom have known her for many years as a cultured lady, a faithful wife and devoted mother—fit helpmate and companion to him who is known far and near as a genial gentleman and upright citizen. In due course, after a digestion-invoking "smoker," we departed for our several homes, bearing with us the felicitating conviction that the day had been one of mutual pleasure.

An Extraordinary Show.
Pathe released on the Gold Rooster program Christmas week the famous seven-part "Life of Our Savior," in Pathe color. This very costly production has probably attracted as much or more notice than any photograph every produced. Years were spent in its making and thousands of people employed in the cast. The principal parts were played by the leading celebrities of the Parisian stage, and the bewildering number of historically correct costumes had to be especially made. The subject lends itself particularly well to color and the glowing splendor of many of the scenes are almost beyond description. It is difficult in a play of this character to give a thoroughly harmonious and reverent interpretation, but the success with which it has been done in "The Life of Our Savior" is proven by the universal praise which has been given it by the clergy and educators everywhere.
The management of the Picture Show has secured the above subject at a rental of $25.00 for the one night. The high cost of the film makes it necessary to raise the prices: Admission, Children, 10c; Adults, 20c; Reserved Seats, 25c. Show starts promptly at 7:45 P. M., Thursday, January 20th.

Very small congregations at both regular services, but a large congregation attended the funeral of Judge Holland Sunday at 3:00 P. M., at Fort Hill. The Bible Class, at its session Sunday morning, adopted suitable resolutions which were read at the funeral by Prof. G. W. Hanson. A goodly delegation of Knights of Pythias from Piedmont attended the funeral. The death of Judge Holland cast a gloom over the church, although he has been a member of it only about two years.
The morning service will be held at Union next Sunday, and the night service at Fort Hill. Visitors will find a cordial welcome.

Judge Holland's Departure.
Henry Robert Holland, son of William and Robina Calvert Holland, was born in England October 2, 1849. About forty-two years ago, he came with his parents to Pilot Knob. He was an active, industrious young man, made good wages and contributed liberally to the support of the family.
About thirty-five years ago, he was married to Miss Tennessee Nichols, to which union there were born two children, the younger dying in infancy, and the elder, Harry Jr., surviving his father, who departed this life at 4 o'clock Friday morning, January 14, 1916, after an illness of a week. Brother Holland's wife died about five years after they were married. He never married again.
More than two years ago, he was invited to visit the Arcadia Valley Bible Class. He accepted the invitation and became so interested in Bible study that he joined the class, and never missed but three times afterward, one of those being in his last sickness. The church register shows that he joined the Fort Hill Methodist Church March 15, 1914, since which he has been counted a very worthy member.
At the last election he was elected Associate Judge of the county court from the first district, and here as everywhere else, it seems, he made good. Besides his son Harry, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Belle Good of East St. Louis, who was with him the last week of his illness; and Mrs. Sarah Liddell, of Louisville, Ky.
NELSON B. HENRY.

Des Arc Items.
I start on my trip Monday. May God help me to stand the trip. He spared my life through the civil war, and he will protect me wherever I go, provided I do his Holy Will. But it will not be long before I will answer the last roll call, where I will not hear the sound of musketry or the roar of cannon. No sound will ever waken me again.
On account of the bad weather business is very quiet.

John Robinson has moved to town and is making new wagons.

More sickness here now than ever known. Dr. Farr is riding night and day. Dr. Fred Farr helps him all he can.
F. Farr and Jas. Ceilton shipped two cars of stock last week.
Our hearts were made sad by the news of the death of James Harris, of Ironton. He married one of our Des Arc girls, Miss Gertrude Clarkson, daughter of the late Dr. Clarkson. Our hearts go out in deepest sympathy to her, in her hour of sorrow.
He was a good Christian man and will be missed by his family, and, especially, do we sympathize with the aged parents, who have their share of sorrow, losing a son some years ago and now only two daughters are left. May God help them to bear their great sorrow. Sickness kept us from attending the funeral at Annapolis.
Mrs. John Harris was called to Piedmont last week by the illness of her mother.
Miss Jennie Sellinger from Marble Creek has entered the public school here. She is making her home with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Hughes.
Miss Bessie Moody from Sikeston is studying music at the College.

Miss Clara Carty and little granddaughter went to Middlebrook one day last week.
The W. O. T. U. met with Mrs. W. E. McKee Monday afternoon. A special program was rendered and an offering taken for the Clara Hoffman fund.
I was a visitor at our public school Friday afternoon and listened to an interesting discussion on "Why the U. S. should remain neutral," by two young ladies and two young men. The affirmative won. We have some bright young people in our school and they are doing good work. The parents and patrons of the school should take more interest in their work and visit more than they do. It encourages the pupils and also the teachers.
Rev. O. S. Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church, filled his regular appointment here Sunday. He preached a good sermon in the morning to a large congregation. ISAAC.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

For some time a plan has been on foot to combine the Methodist Schools—Carleton at Farmington and Marvin at Fredericktown. The committees to whom the matter has been referred recently issued the following letter:
At a meeting of the Joint Commission on the Union of Marvin and Carleton Colleges, held December 21, 1915, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, that, if by the sale of either College property, or otherwise, funds can be secured to pay all debts on both institutions and equip the remaining plant as recommended by the report of Messrs. Fristoe and Matthews, or to the satisfaction of this body;
Or, if by the sale of both plants, all debts can be paid, and a new plant be equipped on Arcadia Assembly grounds or elsewhere; that we approve such action and the union of the two schools, on the basis already provided by this Commission.
A Committee, Mr. L. Boeger, Mr. Hanford Crawford, Rev. H. P. Crowe and Rev. B. F. Crissman, was appointed to represent the Joint Commission under the above resolution; and the Committee directed the undersigned to notify an agreed list of friends in Fredericktown and in Farmington of this action.

Ironton Citizens Cannot Doubt it
Doan's Kidney Pills were used—They brought benefit.
The story was told to Ironton residents.
Time has strengthened the evidence.
Has proven the result lasting.
The testimony is from this locality.
The proof convincing.
Joseph Knagge, Fredericktown, Mo., says: "Walking, stooping or lifting always gave me backache and the sharp pains kept me in misery. The kidney secretions were scanty and painful in passage. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills greatly relieved me."
GONE FOR GOOD.
More than five years later, Mr. Knagge said: "I am entirely free from kidney trouble now and don't have any more backaches. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for this."
Price, 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Knagge has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
